THE SIX-DAY RACE.

The six-days bicycle race, open to female riders, began last night at the Island ball park in the presence of fully 5,000 people, and it is one of the most novel and interesting attractions that has struck this old town for many a day. It was so novel and exciting that it will prove a great drawing crowd every night this week.

The race started at 8:15 o'clock and continued until 10:15 o'clock. There were six entries, but an accident to the wheel of Miss Lou Young, of this city, after she had ridden several laps, prevented her continuing. She will enter again this evening. A similar accident to Jessie Bartley's wheel caused her considerable trouble, and she was out of it most of the time. The other riders, May Allen, the English champion, Bertha Wagner, of Cleveland, champion of the Ohio, Grace Howard, of Minneapolis, and Edith Vine, of Youngstown, put up a very pretty and exciting contest. Their fast riding was a surprise to the vast audience that packed the bleachers, the grand stand, and every foot of available space.

The races occurred on the saucer-shaped track, another novel innovation. A string of lights around the track furnished brilliant illumination, and in the center of the arena the Opera House orchestra discoursed a programme of popular lively selections. The fair sex was out in force, and the good order maintained ensures liberal patronage until the races conclude Saturday night. All of the riders were in handsome racing attire and they became favorites from the start by their plucky hard riding. There was not a lap ridden that wasn't followed by an exciting spurt for position, and the spurs of May Allen and Bertha Wagner particularly would put to shame any local wheelman of the masculine gender. The track was fifteen laps to the mile and good time was made. Miss Lizzie Glaw, champion of America, didn't compete, owing to an accident which befell her in a road race in Chicago last Saturday.

Little Jessie Bartley, known as "Babe," is a splendid rider, and will be in better condition this evening. For her first attempt at racing on a saucer-shaped track, Miss Young made a good showing. Grace Howard and Edith Vine are steady riders and are destined to make things hum before the week is out. The conditions of the race are such that none of the riders receive any premium unless they finish in fourth position or better, except the small consideration they get for appearing. There is great rivalry existing between them, as is evinced by the hustling they do when passed. The referee is John Riddle, of Pittsburgh, who officiated in the Madison Square races for the Empire Athletic club of New York.

The summary at the conclusion of the first night's racing was as follows:

Rider.	Miles.	Laps.
Allen, May	41	1
Wagner, Bertha	39	0
Vine, Edith	39	0
Howard, Grace	28	0
Bartley, Jessie	12	7
Young, Lou	1	8

Miss Allen Challenges.
In behalf of Miss May Allen, one of the riders competing in the New Cycle Carnival Co.'s six-day race, Louis Gimm, of Cleveland, the well known rider, issues a challenge to any male rider in Wheeling for a race of from 10 miles up, or for one-half to two hours' ride. The contest is to take place on the saucer-shaped track at the Island ball park, for any amount of money.

It is said Miss Allen rode a mile on a 22-lap track in Pittsburgh week before last in 2:12 1/2.

Umpire McDonald called the game on account of darkness at the end of the first half of the fifth. Attendance, 6,340. Score: R H E.
